The Arts Council of Wilmington & NHC 2021 Year in Review

Our Mission

To support artists and arts organizations through innovative public/private partnerships that support jobs, stimulate commerce, and showcase the region as an arts destination.

More than 20 galleries and art spaces were part of Fourth Friday Gallery Nights, a monthly after hours celebration of art and culture.

A Venus Flytrap was recently unveiled at the entrance of ILM - one one of three public art commissions overseen by the Arts Council.

The Wilmington Rail Trail, spearheaded by the Arts Council, will be an urban linear park with arts and cultural amenities.

Our Partners

ARTY PARTY SPONSORSHIP

Join the Arts Council of Wilmington/NHC as we celebrate our 10th year as the nucleus of Wilmington's vibrant arts scene. The Arty Party, our annual fundraiser, will be held Saturday, May 21, 2022, from 7:00-10:00 p.m. at Union Station at Cape Fear Community College. The magical evening will feature live music, show-stopping performances, fine art, food & drinks.

The Arty Party is our first fundraiser since 2019 and we are appealing to visionaries like you who understand the social and economic impact of the arts on our community. Together we have built a great city to live, work, and create!

Proceeds will be used to build organizational capacity for the Arts Council whose mission is to support artists and arts organizations through innovative public/private partnerships that develop jobs, stimulate commerce, and showcase the region as an arts destination.

The Arty Party puts your business in front of an influential group of artists, arts leaders, and arts supporters at one of the year's most happening events!
